

Who We Serve

We extend our hand to those in need, offering a sanctuary of support and understanding. We serve minority and underserved children, and those who have endured adverse childhood experiences, fostering healing and resilience within their families. With empathy as our guide, we provide a comforting haven where every child and family member find solace, belonging, and the strength to thrive.

Mission Statement

A Gift of Solace is a non-profit community-based organization dedicated to serving underserved children and families. The mission is to provide skill-building opportunities, promote social and academic achievements, and support healthy lifestyles.

A Gift of Solace

A Gift of Solace is a social impact organization creating lasting change in the lives of families and children served.

Overview

Founded in 2018, A Gift of Solace (AGOS) envisions a world where each child served will maximize their full potential and consequently positively represent their communities. The organization continues to mobilize systems that support and empower children while promoting resilience and self-empowerment.
